TEACHER-MOTHERS STILL MUST WAIT

Board Refuses to Replace Women and Decision Is Off for Week.

REFERS QUESTION TO BYLAWS COMMITTEE

"Don't We Know When We're Licked?" Cries Barondess as Martin Challenges Finley.

The Board of Education made a last teacher-mother affair at its meeting yesterday afternoon. Instead of confessing its errors in the past and reinstating the women, it employed vast quantities

The ten tencher-mothers are technically still under suspension. Even Mrs. Bridget C. Peixotto, whom Commissioner Finley ordered reinstated, will have to wait for what one member called the "decent and orderly process of law."

Dr. Ira S. Wile, champion of the Dr. Ira S. Wile, champion of the teacher-mothers to the very end, offered a resolution that all charges against women for neglect of duty because of child-bearing should be dismissed. The board refused to accept this motion and referred it to the bylaws committee. Commissioner Joseph H. Barondess made an impetuous attempt to turn the tide.

"Don't we know when we're ficked?" he cried, jumping to his feet, in de-fiance of law and President Churchill's frowns. He was promptly ordered to subside. Commissioner Stein then took
